

school lost its lease and had to move on. The ED was all talk and no action. He was so sure he was going to be rescued that he failed to rescue himself. The school is closed, he's out a cool ¼ million (dollars that is) and the kids are scrambling for a new school. Talk is good but not enough. Get out there and get your business and have a good time doing it!

If you found these helpful and want more business-building guidance and advice, then you will find free reports and free e-courses at my website: www.confidenceconnections.com.

To reach me call: 323-935-6477; or, kschulweis@gmail.com

Best of luck to you,

Kathleen Schulweis, Professional Coach